RENAISSANCE COMPANY

AUDITIONS

The Renaissance Company is Renaissance PAC's elite, audition-only, pre-professional musical theatre training program and competition team for students aged 12-18. This program is intended to strengthen a student's comprehensive knowledge of theatre as an art form and create a space where artistry and diversity are celebrated.

The Renaissance Company offers students the opportunity to perform and develop their craft while receiving instruction and training from a team of industry professionals. Company members receive coaching in numerous acting techniques, music theory and vocal performance, and company-wide dance training.

Renaissance Company members will have the opportunity to travel and compete at Musical Theatre Competitions of America, an international musical theatre competition, to showcase their hard work and skills. As the Renaissance Company continues to grow, we plan to travel to the Junior Theater Festival, Dance Excellence, and more performing arts workshops and competitions.

Members of the Renaissance Company take masterclasses and workshops from working professionals and receive insight about the current state of the Musical Theatre industry.

In person auditions will take place in the Spring of 2025, video applications accepted year round.
